

Decanter

50 best rosés for summer

RIESLING ROUND THE WORLD

Your ultimate buyer's guide

NEW ZEALAND PINOT NOIR

172 tasted and rated

ROSA KRUGER

South Africa's 'warrior queen'

14

Domaine Gavoty, Côtes de Provence, France 2015 91

£11.95 Jeroboams

Quite a serious style of Provence rosé - there is a delicate balance between fruit weight and a savoury edge which makes it very enjoyable to drink. There's a touch of bitterness too which is smoothed out by mineral acidity and subtle oak spice.

Drink 2016-2017 Alc 13%

14

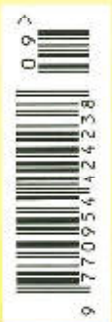

24

24

Domaine Gavoty, Cuvée Clarendon, Côte de Provence, France 2015 91

£15.95 Jeroboams

Bright red fruits come spilling out of this appealing rosé. Succulent, sweet-fruited and spicy with a crisp and juicy fruit character and zingy acidity. No: overly long or complex but very nicely made and very drinkable now. Mellifluous and refreshing. Drink 2016 Alc 13%

ALSO Travel: Corbières • Bierzo • Volcanic wines • Haut-Bailly

